

RESPONSE

Responsive services to address gender-based violence against women with disabilities

WE'VE LAUNCHING A MOOC

The RESPONSE MOOC is now live and free to access on the EASPD Knowledge Hub!

This Massive Open Online Course is for people working in domestic violence services, mainstream disability services, and women with disabilities.

It contains a series of training modules that will help learners:

- Acquire the knowledge, skills and competencies to develop gender-sensitive services in domestic violence
- Learn how women with disabilities can be involved in this process
- Be informed of how to better achieve cooperation, integration, and coordination of services to promote a better quality of life for women with disabilities.

To take this MOOC, register for free on the EASPD Knowledge Hub.
