

EASPD Lunchtime Webinar on Erasmus+ 2018 Call for proposals: matching Service Providers & Higher Education Institutions

Friday 15th December 2017 – from 12:00 to 13:00 CET

EASPD is organising a webinar to introduce the main features of the 2018 Erasmus+ call for proposals, with a specific focus on cooperation between service providers and higher education institutions. The webinar will present examples of such collaborations and will provide an opportunity to hear directly from representatives of support services and academia about their experiences.

AGENDA

Moderator: Carmen Arroyo de Sande (EASPD Development Manager)

12:00-12:05 Welcome and introduction

12:05-12:20 Erasmus+ Call 2018: presentation of objectives & priorities and tips & tricks for project applications. Domenico Manente (EASPD Project officer)

12:20-12:50 Cooperation between Service Providers and HEIs

Why higher education institutions and service providers seek joint cooperation? What is the shared added value of working together? What are the mutual benefits? How is this collaboration structured? Examples of successful funded projects.

1 Presentation from HEI – University of Siegen (DE)

1 Presentation from service provider - ChanceB (AT)

12:50-13:00 Matching time and Q&A

Participants are invited to share project ideas and main relevant topics to start developing cooperation between support services and academia

Click here to register!

Registration deadline 12th December. Open only for EASPD members.

Need more information? Contact Domenico Manente domenico.manente@easpd.eu